

Photograph 4.3-1 Striations in muddy sand bottom from cookies (3 to 6 inch diameter rubber discs) strung on the trawl sweep and ground cables. Post-trawling it appears that the flocculent layer is removed exposing more of the polychaetes tubes (e.g., Bamboo Worms, Maldanidae) to potential predators.